Nebuchadnezzar's vision of the statue and Daniel's interpretation of the vision

- ❑ Daniel a prophet from the tribes of the children of Israel who lived from 618 B.C to 534 B.C
- ❑ Nebuchadnezzar took him with the captivity of the children of Israel to Iraq {Kingdom of Babylon}
- ❑ He has a book from among the books of the Old Testament
- ❑ Nebuchadnezzar, the Babylonian Assyrian king, saw a vision in the book of Daniel, chapter 2 {Great statue composed of five parts - in Daniel chapter 7 = Four beasts}
- ❑ Nebuchadnezzar's priests could not interpret the vision
- ❑ God sent angel Gabriel to Daniel, and he interpreted the vision to him

1- The head of the statue is from gold. Daniel the Prophet explained it to him as the Babylon, and it was from 612 B.C - 539 B.C

2- The chest is of silver, which was interpreted by Daniel the Prophet to him as the Persian Empire, and it was from 539 B.C - 331 B.C

3- The belly of Bronze, which Daniel interpreted as the Greeks Empire in chapter 8 of the book of Daniel, and it was from 331 B.C - 63 B.C

4- The leg is of iron interpreted by Prophet Daniel as a fourth kingdom that comes after Greeks and it is the Roman Empire that defeated Greeks and the Persians and expanded and spread widely throughout the world, and iron indicates the strength of the Romans, and it was from 63 B.C - 638 A.D until Jerusalem was conquered during the reign of Omar bin Al-Khattab and Romans were defeated.

5- The feet is of iron, clay and ceramics indicates other dynasties with the Romans that cooperate with them and have an ally like {Eastern Byzantine empire - Western Romans empire} with the Arab Christians in northwestern Arabia, who were fighting with the Romans against Muslims in the Battle of Yarmouk. Then the order of the Byzantine empire ended with opening their capital Constantinople in 1453 A.D

- A stone was cut without hands, and it struck the statue on its feet, which were of iron and clay, and crushed them
- Daniel finishes the interpretation with a clear saying: {God of the heavens will establish a kingdom that will never vanish, and its authority will not be left to another people, and it will crush and perish all these kingdoms}.
- Angel Gabriel told Daniel that each of these four nations defeats the other from the bottom up and spread across the earth .. "The Persians defeated the Babylonians in the Battle of Opis in September 539 B.C .. The Greeks defeated the Persians with a great victory for Alexander and by defeating Darius in the Battle of Tel Jomel. The Romans defeated the Greeks, the Seleucids and the Persians. And the nation of the Seal of the Messengers and the Master of the Prophets will come to remove the Romans from the Holy Land in the famous Battle of Yarmouk between the Muslim nation raised up by God of the Heavens and the Roman army consisting of the Romans and Arab Christians. Then emperor Hercules said, "O Damascus, goodbye, no meeting after that"
- Likewise this nation that God of the heavens established himself defeats the Persians in Battle of al-Qadisiyyah and will remain forever until the Day of Resurrection.
- That is why in the fourth year of the Prophet's mission, the Holy Quran emphasized the victory of the Romans, "the feet of the statue = the iron" after they were defeated by the Persians, represented by the chest of the statue = silver "at the Holy Land near the Dead Sea .. God said in Surat Al-Rum: {and after they are defeated They will be victorious} because God who revealed the Noble Quran was the one who revealed to Daniel .. everything is in his hands
- Prophet, though the intensity of the hard situation of the battle of the trench, while he was besieged by several armies of polytheists and Jews, putting two stones on his stomach from hunger, he said: {In the name of God. Then he struck and broke a third of the rock, and said: God is the greatest, I was given the keys of Ash-Sham; by God I can see its red palaces now. Then he struck it (rock) the second time, and he broke the other third, and said: God is the greatest, I was given the keys of Persia; by God I can see its white Madain palace. Then he struck it the third time and said: In the name of God and broke the rest of the stone, he said: God is the greatest I was given the keys of Yemen, and by God I can see the gates of Sanaa, from my place now".

- Prophet Muhammad said: {Count six before the hour .. My death .. and then Conquest of Jerusalem} .. Indeed, Jerusalem has been Conquered.
- So, when Hercules asked Abu Sufyan while they were in Jerusalem:

  Hercules: Has anyone ever said this before it?

  Abu Sufyan: No.

  Hercules, the king of the Romans, knows that there are no prophets among his people before him because "the stone was cut without hands" .. Quran says: "Never did We send a messenger or a prophet before thee"
- For this reason also Christ compared that nation that God of the heavens raised like Daniel, compared it with the stone that breaks down before it every vain. {Therefore I tell you that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit and the one who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; and when it falls on anyone, it will crush him} Gospels of Matthew and Luke
- The God of the heavens promised the victory of that nation, the stone, which He established Himself, and said, "It is He Who hath sent His Messenger with guidance and the Religion of Truth, to proclaim it over all religion, even though the Pagans may detest". And his Messenger promised: {Islam will keep spreading as far as the night and day reach, until God will not leave a house made of mud or hair, but will make this religion enter it, while bringing might to a mighty person and humiliation to a disgraced person. Might with which God elevates Islam and disgrace with which God humiliates disbelief} .. And God of the heavens fulfilled his promise and Islam spread all over the world.

The text of the vision and its interpretation by Daniel the Prophet

The Book of Daniel .. Second Chapter Issue 31-45

{Your Majesty looked, and there before you stood a large statue an enormous, dazzling statue, awesome in appearance. The head of the statue was made of pure gold, its chest and arms of silver, its belly and thighs of bronze, its legs of iron, its feet partly of iron and partly of baked clay. While you were watching, a rock was cut out, but not by human hands. It struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay and smashed them. Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver and the gold were all broken to pieces and became like chaff on a threshing floor in the summer. The windswept them away without leaving a trace. But the rock that struck the statue became a huge mountain and filled the whole earth. This was the dream, and now we will interpret it to the king. Your Majesty, you are the king of kings. The God of heaven has given you dominion and power and might and glory; in your hands he has placed all mankind and the beasts of the field and the birds in the sky. Wherever they live, he has made you ruler over them all. You are that head of gold. After you, another kingdom will arise, inferior to yours. Next, a third kingdom, one of bronze, will rule over the whole earth. Finally, there will be a fourth kingdom, strong as iron for iron breaks and smashes everything and as iron breaks things to pieces, so it will crush and break all the others. Just as you saw that the feet and toes were partly of baked clay and partly of iron, so this will be a divided kingdom; yet it will have some of the strength of iron in it, even as you saw iron mixed with clay. As the toes were partly iron and partly clay, so this kingdom will be partly strong and partly brittle. And just as you saw the iron mixed with baked clay, so the people will be a mixture and will not remain united, any more than iron mixes with clay. In the time of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed, nor will it be left to another people. It will crush all those kingdoms and bring them to an end, but it will itself endure forever. This is the meaning of the vision of the rock cut out of a mountain, but not by human hands a rock that broke the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver and the gold to pieces. The great God has shown the king what will take place in the future. The dream is true and its interpretation is trustworthy}.
